I N T R O D U C T I O N

The Guides to German Records Microfilmed at Alexandria, Va., constitute a series of finding aids to the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) microfilm publications of seized records of German central, regional, and local government agencies and of military commands and units, as well as of the Nazi Party, its component formations, affiliated associations, and supervised organizations. The records described in the guides were created generally during the period 1920-45.

The guide series was initiated by the microfilming project of the Committee for the Study of War Documents of the American Historical Association (AHA) in cooperation with NARS and the Department of the Army. With the termination of AHA participation in July 1963, NARS assumed sole responsibility for the reproduction of records and the preparation of guides.

Guide No. 81 is the fourth in a sequence describing records reproduced on Microfilm Publication T175, Records of the Reich Leader of the SS and Chief of the German Police (Reichsfuehrer-SS und Chef der Deutschen Polizei--RFSS). Parts I-III are in Guide Nos. 32, 33, and 39. Other microfilmed SS records are described in Guide Nos. 72 and 79, Records of the Waffen-SS, Parts I-II, T354, and Guide No. 27, Miscellaneous SS Records: Einwandererzentralstelle, Waffen-SS, and SS-Oberabschnitte, T354. Complementary records are described in Guide No. 2, Records of the Office of the Reich Commissioner for the Strengthening of Germandom (Reichskommissar fuer die Festigung deutschen Volkstums--RKFDV), T74; Guide Nos. 16 and 21, Records of the German Foreign Institute (Deutsches Auslandsinstitut, Stuttgart--DAI), Part I: Records on Resettlement and Part II: The General Records, T81; Guide No. 28, Records of the Reich Ministry for the Occupied Eastern Territories (Reichsministerium fuer die besetzten Ostgebiete--RMfdbO), T454.

This guide describes records reproduced on 105 rolls of Microfilm Publication T175 (rolls 574-605, "R606-607," 608-614, "R615-639," 640, "R641-655," and 656-678). This assemblage suffers from disorganization due to the amorphous, overlapping, and continually changing organization and functions of the agencies involved, but groupings of certain materials can be readily ascertained.

The main grouping consists of records from RG 242, National Archives Collection of Foreign Records Seized, 1941-. These are records of the Chief of Security Police and Security Service (Chef der Sicherheitspolizei und des Sicherheitsdienstes--CdS) and his headquarters agency, the Reichssicherheitshauptamt (RSHA) established in September 1939. Included are files accessioned from RSHA's joint predecessors, the Sicherheitshauptamt (SHA) and the Sicherheitsdienst-Hauptamt (SD-HA), and RSHA's seven component offices (Aemter) and their subordinate divisions (Gruppen) and sections (Referate): RSHA, Amt I (RSHA/I), Personnel; RSHA, Amt II (RSHA/II), Organization, Administration, and Law; RSHA, Amt III (RSHA/III), German Spheres of Life (SD-Deutsche Lebensgebiete) and Domestic Security Service (SD-Inland); RSHA, Amt IV (RSHA/IV), Investigating and Combatting Opposition (Gegner Erforschung und Bekaempfung), the Gestapo; RSHA, Amt V (RSHA/V), Suppression of Crime, Criminal Police (Verbrechens Bekaempfung, Kriminalpolizei), the Kripo; RSHA, Amt VI (RSHA/VI), Foreign Security Service (SD-Ausland); RSHA, Amt VII (RSHA/VII), Ideological Research and (its) Exploitation (Weltanschauliche Forschung und Auswertung). Also included are random records from a number of regional Geheime Staatspolizei and Kriminalpolizei(leit)stellen and local Aussen-dienststellen, and interspersed therein are files of city, town, and rural police forces that functioned as local auxiliaries in handling political and criminal cases. Also included in the Gestapo files are records of border and customs posts that came under Gestapo jurisdiction during the war.

A second grouping consists of SS-originated records found among NARS RG 226, Records of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), including records of the Deutsche Gesandtschaft Bukarest (German Embassy in Bucharest). These records were captured in 1945 in Bucharest and were inadvertently incorporated into the records of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), Research and Analysis Branch, Central Information Division. The original designation "OSS" was converted to "DGesBukarest" for computer purposes and provenance identification, but the "XL" number is retained for reference to the original NARS OSS records collection.

A third grouping consists of SS-originated records found among NARS RG 238, National Archives Collection of World War II War Crimes Records. These records are from the Office of the Chief Counsel for War Crimes (OCC) and were assembled for evidentiary use in the Nuernberg War Crimes Trials. The records were filmed on T175 and are described here, retaining the "OCC" number assigned in RG 238. The material consists of "Das Ahnenerbe" (Ancestral Heritage Society) diaries and of security police records concerning Jews and other racial matters.

The Sicherheitsdienst (SD) began as a small internal intelligence and counterintelligence agency within the NSDAP. Shortly after the Roehm affair of 30 June 1934, the SD was divided into two separate organizations. One--a bodyguard force for Hitler and his chief subordinates, eventually known as Reichssicherheitsdienst--was composed of permanent sections stationed in Berlin, Berchtesgaden, and Munich and a mobile unit known as the Fuehrer-Begleitkommando. The other, designated Sicherheitsdienst des Reichsfuehrer-SS (SD-RFSS or simply SD), became, after 1936, the intelligence and counterintelligence agency for the German government as well as for the NSDAP. The central office for the SD, between 1935 and 1939, was the Sicherheitsdienst-Hauptamt (SD-HA), composed of SD-HA/I for administration, SD-HA/II for domestic intelligence, and SD-HA/III for foreign intelligence. In 1938, the SD-HA was subordinated in certain respects to the Sicherheitshauptamt; in September 1939, both were integrated into the RSHA. The personnel and administrative sections were absorbed into RSHA/I and II, domestic intelligence into RSHA/III (SD-Inland or SD-Deutsche Lebensgebiete), and foreign intelligence into RSHA/VI (SD-Ausland). Counterintelligence and executive functions had already been surrendered to the Gestapo at the time of the subordination of SD-HA to SHA in 1938.

The INDEX to Guide No. 81 can be found immediately following the instructions for its use on page 95. It is an archival index to this descriptive finding aid only. The index terms were derived from the descriptive material and have been supplemented with references, cross-references, and explanatory subheadings by means of computer techniques.

The CONTENTS column contains the provenance and a general description of the content of the record item. The inclusive dates of the record item are given under the DATE column. The ITEM NO. is an artificial identification symbol assigned to the folder at German Military Document Section (GMDS) in Alexandria, Va.; the ROLL refers to the sequence of the film in Microfilm Publication T175; and the 1ST FRAME gives the frame number of the first page of the file item.

The original records were returned after filming to the Federal Republic of Germany and deposited at the Bundesarchiv in Koblenz. Some recently declassified records of the Allgemeine-SS have been microfilmed for return to Germany. The master negatives of Microfilm Publication T175 have been deposited with the Publications Sales Branch, National Archives and Records Service (GSA), Washington, DC 20408, from which copies of specific rolls may be purchased, except for "R-Rolls" ("Restricted"). "R-Rolls" pertain to privileged material; they are not available for purchase but may be reviewed within NARS research rooms. No reproductions of these record items are permitted. Reference copies of all other rolls may be consulted in the Microfilm Reading Room of the National Archives. For suggestions for citing microfilm, see page xix.

The descriptions of this guide were prepared by Robert Wolfe, National Archives, and Willard Fletcher, University of Delaware. Johanna M. Wagner prepared the input data for the computer-printed register and index; the textual material was edited by Shelby G. Bale, NARS, Editorial Branch. The computer-input scheme, a modification of the SPINDEX program, was devised by the undersigned.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CITING MICROFILM OF CAPTURED GERMAN AND RELATED RECORDS IN THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF THE UNITED STATES

The National Archives and Records Service is frequently asked to provide recommendations regarding information to be included in footnotes or other references to records among its holdings. The following suggestions should serve this purpose and also help our staff in locating the records thus cited.

Records

Because of the great variety and complexity of some archival material, there are no convenient models that would be applicable to all records. The initial citation, however, might consist of those of the following elements applicable in each instance: item, file unit, or subseries, series title, originating office (and the administrative units of which that office is a part) name of collection or record group number and title, and depository. Except for placing the cited item first, there is no general agreement on the sequence of the remaining elements in the citation. Publishers, professional journals, and graduate faculties all prescribe their own style. Whatever sequence is adopted, however, should be used consistently throughout the same work. If in doubt, the researcher should confer with an archivist regarding elements that may be necessary to identify adequately specific records being cited.

Microfilm Publications

Citation to records reproduced in National Archives microfilm publications should provide, in general, the same information as suggested above, but with sufficient additional information to identify the particular microfilm publication as well as roll and frame numbers, if applicable.

Microfilm publications of foreign records seized during World War II involve such peculiarities of identification that largely individualized suggested systems of citation have been developed for them. The following examples suggest both a form of initial citation and of subsequent citations of the same document for each of five major microfilm projects reproducing captured German and related records; the form for the bibliography, which is not illustrated below, could be some appropriate modification of the initial citation, but should also include the National Archives record group title and number, and the title and number of the microfilm publication, e.g., National Archives Collection of World War II War Crimes Records (Nuernberg), Record Group 238, U.S. v. Otto Ohlendorf, et al., Microfilm Publication M895, 38 rolls; National Archives Collection of Foreign Records Seized 1941- , Record Group 242, Records of the Reich Ministry of Economics, Microfilm Publication T71, 148 rolls.

Item numbers such as EAP 173-a-10/22a, or OKW 1015 are optional and serial numbers unnecessary. Frames are sometimes unnumbered.

2. Foreign Ministry Archives and records of the Reichskanzlei filmed at Whaddon Hall.

Initial citation:

The serial number is the essential identification, whether the serial is of the interchangeable unlettered or H serials, or of the B,C,F,K,L, and M serials. The terms reel, container or roll are acceptable variations, with the last preferred by the National Archives. With the Tripartite Project microfilm, National Archives Microfilm Publication T120, it is imperative to distinguish between serial and roll numbers, and the Catalog of Files and Microfilm of the German Foreign Ministry Archives, 1920-1945, 4 vols., has as a supplement to each volume, a National Archives serial-roll conversion list. The Public Records Office in London uses the same serial and frame numbers, although not always the same roll numbers, and the microfilm publication symbols GFM 2-5 instead of T120, to identify the Tripartite Project microfilm. The other Whaddon Hall microfilm projects use the same number for serial and roll, as the SA (Saint Antony's College project) serial example, given above, indicates; the National Archives has substituted microfilm publication number for project symbols.

3. Records from the German Naval Archives microfilmed for the United States Navy at the Admiralty, London.

Subsequent citations:

PG 64856, T1022/650.

PG number is the essential record item number; either the TA number or the T1022 roll number is sufficient microfilm identification. There are no frame numbers in this microfilm publication.

Provenance various. A file of Chef der Zivilverwaltung (CdZ) in Bad Godesberg concerning the arrest of some Jews for acquiring food on the black market, 1939, and Stapo-Aussendienststelle Aachen records of an investigation into the background of a German soldier rumored to be a prisoner of war in Soviet hands, 1944. Stapostelle Koeln wanted circulars, also found in this folder, have not been filmed.	1939/00/00-1944/00/00	EAP173-b-16-05/162	585	214

Staatspolizeileitstelle Karlsruhe; Badisches Landeskriminalpolizeiamt, Geheimes Staatspolizeiamt. Twenty-eight folders, arranged for filming in alphabetical order, of Stapoleitstelle Karlsruhe and its predecessor organization, Badisches Gestapa, containing records on loyalty investigations of German nationals who apparently held, or were being considered for, various positions in government or party agencies, 1933-43. Several gaps indicate that some folders in this collection are missing. Folder 173-b-16-12/26 apparently contains records of persons of questionable reliability from the Nazi point of view. SD-Hauptamt/II 112. Records of SD-HA Amt II 112, the SD section dealing with Jewish affairs, including folders marked "18-3, Zusammenarbeit mit DAF, Amt Information, und andere Dienststellen," 1935-39. For the bulk of captured SD-HA/II 112 files, see Guide No. 39, p. 107-113. Much of this material consists of routine memorandums, reports, and correspondence (including evaluations of proposed articles and books on various aspects of the "Jewish question," the authors having applied for permission to publish), but it throws considerable light on the activities during the years 1935-39 of a number of still obscure SD men who later carried out assignments between 1940 and 1945, which brought them to a nadir of notoriety. On page after page of these folders can be found the names, initials, or signatures of Eichmann, Wisliceny, Dannecker, Hagen, Ehrlinger, Knochen, and Six, as well as some signatures of Arthur Nebe on letters from RKPA to the SD-HA. Of special note are memorandums by Wisliceny, then head of Amt II 112, dated April 4 and 21, 1937, the latter entitled, "Richtlinien und Foerderungen an die Oberabschnitte," which provide a highly enlightening exposition of the earlier attitudes and recommendations of one of the small SD group that later furnished most of the bureaucracy which administered "the final solution." Also of interest are two Eichmann memorandums of May 7, 1937 on his interview with Haganah agent, Feivel Polkes, who was permitted to visit Berlin between Feb 26, and Mar 2, 1937. Eichmann describes Polkes as working for Jewish imigration into Palestine in such numbers as to outnumber the Arabs and as avowedly ready to exchange information and "favours" with any of his "opponents" whenever this would further his ends. A few documents created by the respective successor of office to SD-HA/II 112, Gestapa II B 2, and RSHA IV B, are also included, bringing the entire date span of this record item to 1935-43.	1935/00/00-1943/00/00	EAP173-b-16-14/57	588	304 statistics on the various ethnic groups and nationalities, including Jews, living in certain regions of the Soviet Union, the evolution of the Komintern and Communist Party, police and news services, religion and confession, education, economy, industry, and the organization of the Red Army. Includes sketches of European Russia, April 1941, administrative structures of Soviet regions, rayons, cities, and Soviet Military (Infantry) collar patches and insignia of various ranks; tables showing organizational structure of the Communist Party, 1939, The Third International (Communist, Komintern), and the Soviet Communist Party (Bolsheviks), 1938.

This computer-printed index consists of index terms derived from the foregoing descriptive register of Reichsfuehrer SS und Chef der Deutschen Polizei record items listed in this guide, rather than directly from the records. This index has two alphabetical and one chronological computer sort and provides a main keyword and often additional sub-keyword(s) for each pertinent record item listed in the register, giving page number in the guide, and roll and frame number(s). Some of the index keywords and sub-keyword(s) have been supplemented with a short explanation by means of computer techniques.

Main Keywords and Sub-Keywords

Main keywords or headings include names of individuals, geographical terms, countries, administrative and occupational territories (e.g., SD-LA Wien; BDS und SD Frankreich), abbreviations of various organizations, (e.g., NSDAP, Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiter Partei--National Socialist German Workers Party); sub-keywords, referring to significant subjects under the main keyword, appear as subheadings (e.g., SOVIET UNION, Ethnic Groups; JEWS, Deportations).

Language

The keywords and sub-keywords used in the index are the generally accepted English equivalents of the German or German-translated words found in the records. When using the original German word or its German abbreviation as the index term, the English equivalent or translation and sometimes a short explanation of the term is given (e.g., GENERALGOVERNEMENT--Government General in Poland; HSSPF, Hoehere SS- und Polizeifuehrer--Superior SS and Police Commander); or a cross-reference to an equivalent term(s) may appear (e.g., PRESSBURG (See Bratislava); CZERNOWITZ (See also Chernovtsy Ukrainian S.S.R.)). For purposes of automation, the diphthong is used instead of the umlaut (e.g., Høhere SS- und PolizeifUhrer becomes Hoehere SS- und Polizei-fuehrer, and Møller becomes Mueller).

Geographical Terms

Geographical terms, transliterated from the Cyrillic alphabet into German spelling in the German records, in this index are transliterated into the English rendition found in the Columbia Lippincott Gazetteer of the World (1970). In most cases, references to German areas annexed to postwar Poland and Russia are given the English equivalent place names (e.g., LEMBERG (See Lvov), LITZMANNSTADT (See Lodz), or BRESLAU (See Wroclaw)).

Dates

The years, months, and days under the DATES column are either (1) the span date of the entire record item listed under the corresponding CONTENTS column, or (2) the single date of a one-event or one-document record item; for chronological computer sort, repetition of the single date is necessary; 00-fillers were used where the specific month and day were undeterminable.

Item, Roll, and 1st Frame

Each item number represents the original record item filmed in NARS Microfilm Publication T175, rolls 574-605, "R606-607," 608-614, "R615-639," 640, "R641-655," and 656-678. In the 1ST FRAME column is the first frame number of the entire record item rather than the exact frame on which the indexed entry occurs. Once at the first frame, the researcher must proceed to the particular frame(s) containing the specific reference indicated by the index. Some record items in this collection, filmed originally without frame numbers on ML (Microfilm Library) or MR (Microfilm Reproduction) rolls, have been assigned new T175-roll numbers (666-678) and simulated initial frame numbers.
